Unfinished Business:

- 1 Forestry Plan: nothing happening
- 2 Pond report: done putting chemicals in this year due to cold weather
- 3 Basement sealing and painting, Kent thinks he may have help for next year.
- 4 Queen of hearts: Paula gave detailed update verbally and in Treasurer's report.
- 5 Club Insurance? Throwers and Electronic Gates – nothing back yet, Jeff Stripling getting a quote from Hawkins-Cassens Insurance
- 6 Aluminum docks – still need some work before putting in next summer.
- 7 CRP sign up – another month or two before we know anything.
- 8 Dixon Mower at Archery Range, belt repaired by Al and Kent.

New Business:

1 Kent reported FFA Section 1 shoot 10/19/19 brought in $420

2 Family Fun Day 77 Kids, Al not running next year, Paula and Rob will keep it going. Discussion on prize money, early fishing, releasing all fish, rules, etc.

3 Motion by Dave Lockhart that any donations in future will be used for prizes, no cash prizes for tournament, Gift Cards for 50/50 raffle is OK, 2nd by Mark Bainbridge, motion carried.

4 Mike Fritz wanted to know why the club CRP had been cut for hay? It was explained that it came out of CRP over 2 years ago and needs to be farmed if any hope of getting it back in, also the club lost $5000 in CRP payments and needed the money the hay brought in.

5 Gene Johnson given OK to trap club grounds as usual.

6 Family Fun Day 2020 will be 9/26/20, Kent to request NWTF Take Aim Trailer.

Meeting adjourned at 7:58pm

Gary Reecher won the 50/50
